HAWAI'I KAI FARMERS ALERT!

Kamehameha Schools Rejects Study - Farmers Take to Highway

Kamilonui Valley farmers continue their struggle against the Kamehameha Schools' attempt to raise lease rents by almost 2800%. Representative Ward joined the farmers along Kalaniana'ole Highway on November 13-14-15 urging the Kamehameha Schools to continue lease rent negotiations.

On November 17, the Kamehameha Schools stated

KEEP THE VALLEY VALLEY!
SAVE KAMILONUI FARMLANDS

that "KS has been meeting with the lessees and remains open to meeting with the lessees."

After several attempts to schedule a meeting with school officials, the Kamehameha Schools agreed to meet directly with the farmers on November 19.

School officials had earlier rejected a study written for the farmers by Dr. Sabry A. Shehata, Ph.D. The study is similar to one written by Dr. Shehata and accepted by the Kamehameha Schools during negotiations with 220 Kona coffee farmers on Hawai'i island. The farmers' struggle now moves on to arbitration which could last several months.

Please show your support for the farmers by e-mailing KSBE at ksinfo@ksbe.edu.
